

CARNIVAL - ORFEU - DJANIRA

This painting is made by a latin american (brazilian) female artist named Djanira Motta e Silva. It's a study made by her in the processo of making the display for a theatre play named "Orfeu da Conceição", written by Vinicius de Moraes, that is about people that live in the communities of a samba school. But it's also inspired on the Greek Myth of the musician Orpheus and his beloved Eurydice.

