

CARNIVAL - CÉZANNE

This painting is named "Mardi Gras" or "Martes de Carnaval" and was made by Paul Cézanne, a post impressionist french artist. And it brings to the scene two very important characters of carnival: Pierrot and Harlequin. While Pierrot is a dreamer, a clown, he's also sensitive. While Harlequin is very smart and playful. Pierrot is deeply in love with Columbine and cries his heart out for her, but she loves Harlequin.
